

Málaga

Three thousand years in twenty one photos

Victoriano Giralt

Central ICT Services University of Málaga

TF-PR
TNC 2009
June 7th, Málaga

Málaga

a city of contrasts nearly 3000 years of history a subtropical oasis with a mild climate fenician → greek → roman → arabic → jewish → christian a city of monuments, culture, industry, leisure and art

An ancient port that lives with the times

The second oldest port in the Occident (after Cádiz) adapted to current commerce and industry transport and tourism

Romans

they gave us the idea of a city and the laws: lex flavia malacitana

Arabs

the biggest fortress in Europe, surfacewise

Alcazaba - Gibralfaro complex, connected by “La Coracha” (IX century)

Arabs

la Alcazaba

the palace, the jewish quarters and the gard

Malageños

Cosmopolitan mediterraneans, open to everything

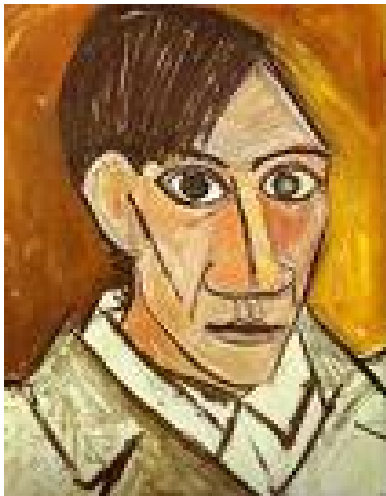

Ibn Gabirol, matemático, investigador

Malageños

Cosmopolitan mediterraneans, open to everything

Pablo Picasso, painter, genius

Malageños

Cosmopolitan mediterraneans, open to everything

Severo Ochoa, physician, researcher

Christians

symbiotic ones

Mudejar tower, Santiago church, XVI century

Santa Maria de la Victoria, she came from germany

The Cathedral

Málaga

an industrious city

Long industrial tradition

The first protestan cemetery in Spain

Málaga

the tropic of Europe

Málaga

joining beauty and tradition in the 21st century

City centre, the old and the new, combine seamlessly

Málaga

joining beauty and tradition in the 21st century

Málaga

history and present

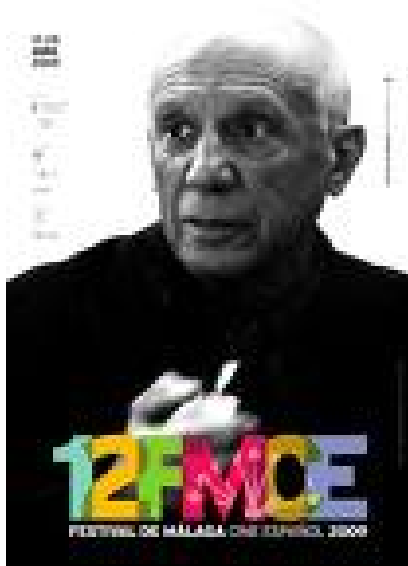

Malagueta bullring

Málaga

history and present

Málaga

folklore and innovation

Málaga conventions centre

Calle Larios in a lively evening serving as show room

Welcome to the University of Malaga Botanical gardens in Teatinos Campus

